Hungarian Pelikán Sports Organization
world bicycle tour

Dear Mr Greiz,

Thank you for your letter dated 2 April. I was very interested to learn about the Hungarian Pelikán Sports Organization's latest project to organize an ambitious world bicycle tour with the participation of two handicapped and three able-bodied athletes.

I fully endorse this unique humanitarian mission and commend you on the initiative you are taking to raise awareness about the problem of drug abuse and discrimination with a view to fostering dialogue and co-operation and thereby, more effective solutions to these social scourges.

May I suggest that, through Interpol Budapest, you contact the Interpol National Central Bureau in each country on the itinerary to seek their assistance and support with this project. I have noted that all but three of the 107 countries to be visited are Interpol members.

I would like to remind you that, as with the previous tour, I cannot authorise you to use Interpol's distinctive signs (emblem, flag, etc.)

May I take this opportunity to wish every success to the admirable sportsmen willing to take up this very remarkable and noble challenge.

Yours sincerely,

By delegation of the Secretary General
